

The Daily Courant.

Wednesday, October 20. 1714.

From the Amsterdam Courants, dated Oct. 25, 27.

Vienna, October 13.

TH E Imperial General Count Welfeck, who is named to meet and wait upon the King of Sweden, is not yet gone, and 'tis said he waits the return of an Express he has sent from hence to his Majesty. The reason why he does not yet set out is, that he doubts whether the King of Sweden will admit any Person with Character, because it is confidently said that he will leave his Troops at the Frontiers of Transylvania and Travel thence incognito: In the mean time General Steinvile, Governour of that Principality, knowing that Count Welfeck is to come to meet that King, has sent two Expresses, one to Moldavia and the other to Walachia, to be assured which Way his Majesty will take, that the Count may order his Journey accordingly.

From the Amsterdam Gazette, dated Oct. 26.

Vienna, Oct. 13. The Emperor and Empress departed Yesterday from this Place to go to Presburg. Their Majesties dine the first Day at Fischach and lye at Petronella, and this Day they dine at Wolfsthal and make their publick Entry in the Afternoon at Presburg. 'Tis believed the Coronation will be solemnized the 18th Instant, and that the Emperor will put an End to the Diet a few Days after. 'Tis said the young Count Palfi will be made Palatine. General Steinvile is preparing to go to Cronstat, where they work hard upon the Fortifications of that Place, and 2000 Peasants are employed to turn the Course of the River and bring it nearer to that City. General Daldorf is arrived from Demir-Tocca at Peterwaradin, and reports that the King of Sweden would follow him in few Days; and according to some Advices his Majesty set out the 28th past. The Pope's Nuncio and the Chancery are gone to Presburg, where the Regiments of Hesse Darmstadt and Staremburg will keep Guard while their Majesties stay there. Count Seilern arrived here some Days since. We hear from Constantinople, that the Russian Ambassadors parted thence the 13th of last Month to return home.

Dresden, Oct. 17. Letters from Warsaw of the 10th Instant advise, that the King had received a Confirmation of the News that the Nobility of the Provinces of Lublin, Sendomir, and Volhinia, separated themselves when they heard of his Majesty's Arrival at Warsaw, and had received the Assurances which his Majesty gave them that they should have an equitable Satisfaction and Redress of the Grievances they complain of. The Palatine of Massovia is arrived at Chocim in his Way from Turkey.

Brussels, Oct. 22. The Deputies of the States of Flanders have presented to Count Coningseck an ample Memorial upon the Subject of the Limits as they ought to be regulated for their Advantage in the Barrier Treaty, which Memorial was favourably received by his Excellency. 'Tis believed the Imperialists will not evacuate Bavaria before they are put in Possession of these Provinces, and since that cannot be done till the Barrier Treaty is finished, the Bavarian Troops who were preparing to march are countermanded.

From the Amsterdam Courant, dated Oct. 27.

Brussels, Oct. 25. Although the seventh Conference was held at the Stadt-house at Antwerp on Monday last, 'tis supposed nothing considerable passed in it, for the Express which Count Coning-seck sent the 14th to Vienna is not yet returned. That Express with the Emperor's Resolution will arrive on Sunday or Monday next. A Letter from a certain Bavarian Minister is shewn here, wherein it is said, that the Elector of Bavaria his Master fearing that the Treaty upon the Barrier will be long in Hand, had besought the King of France to give his good Offices towards hastening the Conclusion of it, to the end that he may not be hindered from returning to his own Dominions, to which he received a favourable Answer. The Government of this Land have not yet agreed to the Subsidy which the States of Flanders have consented to, because it is both too small and too much clogged by Conditions and Limitations: And upon that of Brabant, which is yet smaller, they have not once entred into Consideration.

From the Hague Courant, dated Oct. 26.

Maestricht, Oct. 22. When our Troops came on Friday last before the Castle of Kessenich, had planted their Cannon, and made the proper Preparations to attack it in Form, the Palatine Lieutenant-Colonel who commanded in it, began to Capitulate at seven in the Evening, and at nine marched out with Arms and Baggage, having first made a Protest in the Name of the Elector his Master. The Detachment of our Garrison that went upon that Service came back last Night, and the rest are returned to Stevenward, Ruremond, and Venlo. There was sometime since a Law-Suit between a Nobleman of the Palatine Court and the Baroness de Waes Lady of that Castle, concerning the Property of it, wherein the Elector gave Judgement on his Side, and declared it to be seated within the Limits of his Dominion, which gave Occasion to this Expedition. Yesterday another Servant of the Elector of Cologne arrived here with Baggage belonging to that Prince, and passed forward towards Bonne.

From the Amst. Courant, dated Oct. 27.

Hague, Oct. 25. Yesterday the Peace between Spain and this State was Proclaimed here before the Stadt-House. The French Ambassador has given in a Memorial to their High Mightinesses, which it is said was concerning a Trade which some Hollanders are said to carry on in the Spanish West-Indies. M. de Clingraef the Brunswick Resident of his Britannick Majesty was two Days ago in Conference with the Pensionary Heinsius. M. Palmquist, the Swedish Envoy, has presented a Memorial to the States. The Prince of Anhalt Koeten, the Countess Saxe Weissenfels, Aunt to her Royal Highness the Princess of Wales, and other Persons of Quality who accompanied her hither, are parted hence to return home. The Countess-Dowager of Portland is returned from Aix la Chapelle, and will pass over to England as soon as the Yacht arrives which she expects to go over in.

London, October 19.
